ABOUT HAL NARAGON

Harold "Hal" Naragon was a well-respected member of the Barberton community and admired by everyone who knew him for his kind and gracious nature. Hal tried out for the Cleveland Indians while still attending Barberton High School. His career as a catcher in the Indian's organization lasted several years, including a two-year stint in the Marine Corps where Hal played for the Quantico baseball team.

He returned to the Indians for the historic 1954 season. In the years that followed, Hal played for the Washington Senators and Minnesota Twins, then became a bullpen coach for the Twins and Detroit Tigers. He retired from baseball in 1969, having been on three American League Championship teams, including the 1968 World Series Champion Detroit Tigers.

Hal spent the next 17 years serving the local sports community as the proprietor of Barberton Sporting Goods. The high school varsity baseball field was named in his honor in 2004, and the City of Barberton inducted him into the Walk-of-Fame in 2015. Hal Naragon passed away on August 31, 2019, at the age of 90.
